

Use of Library Space and Equipment

Any request for use of library space and equipment must be directed to the Library Director with a minimum notice of two library business days. Groups must be not-for-profit, and due to limited space may be denied based on size of the group.