

WIRELESS NETWORK USER AGREEMENT AND POLICY

The purpose of the Library's Wireless Network is to provide access for individual users to the Highwood Public Library's wireless network. To access the service, a user must agree to abide by the terms of this user agreement.

CONNECTING:

Your device should be equipped with a Wi-Fi compliant (802.11 a/b/g/n) wireless adaptor. Electrical outlets may be used for customer owned devices, provided such use may not restrict any library service or present a safety hazard. IMPORTANT: Please ensure your device has a fully charged battery as electrical outlets may not be readily available.

The library's wireless patron network is: Library

The library's wireless network is not secure. The library is not responsible for damage or lost data resulting from connection to the library's network. The library assumes no responsibility for any investments a user makes in hardware or software, nor assumes the burden of support for interfacing the user's system with the Wireless Network. Further, the user accepts any potential risk to his/her system when modifying that system to use the service.

The user accepts full responsibility for selecting, installing, and configuring the hardware and software necessary for using the Wireless Network.

TERMS and CONDITIONS:

It is the library's goal to provide access to the wireless network during normal library operating hours within the library's physical facilities and 24/7 outside of the library to within 100ft of library property. However, high demand, reliability of technology and other factors may affect the delivery of the service. For these reasons, the library cannot guarantee the availability of the service.

The Highwood Public Library is not responsible for the content, quality, validity or currency of any information that the library did not create. The library reserves the right to modify or discontinue this service if it is judged necessary by the Board of Library Trustees.

A user accepts responsibility for any personal information that is sent out through the Wireless Network. Communications through the Wireless Network should not be considered secure. Any personal information that is sent through the Wireless Network could potentially be intercepted by a third party using the Wireless Network.

It is the responsibility of each user to obey all local, state and federal laws when using the Wireless Network, including but not limited to copyright, fraud, obscenity and privacy legislation. A user acknowledges that unauthorized reproduction, transfer or use of material accessed through this service may be a criminal offense under the United States Copyright Act.

A user may not attempt to violate the integrity of any information available through the Wireless Network, or any systems accessible through this service. A user may neither attempt to access secured files or systems nor cause any obstruction of use through actions such as consuming large amounts of system resources.

Failure to abide by the terms of this user agreement will result in suspension of a user's Wireless Network privileges and blocking of user devices. If appropriate, the library may also pursue criminal prosecution.
